Energy Efficiency

LOW & MODERATE INCOME

Energy savings for all

There are more opportunities than ever to make energy efficiency and savings more equitable and accessible for all. From supporting neighborhoods that spend more on energy, to creating more inclusive marketing communications, our team is ready to get your income-qualified customers started on their journey to reduce energy consumption and save them money every step of the way.

We deliver equitable energy opportunities.

Drawing on decades of experience in efficient energy, we deliver energy reduction opportunities to your customers at little or no cost to them. Our streamlined, easy-to-use platform allows customers to personalize their energy management experience while maximizing their savings potential.

1 Assess

Using CLEAResult ATLAS™, we make it easy to understand your portfolio of income-verified customers and offer each one a “next best action” toward energy reduction in a single, intuitive platform.

2 Install

We provide homeowners with peace of mind by offering direct installation on energy-efficient products, and free consultation on future energy savings. Our installations come at little to no out-of-pocket cost to your customers and are guaranteed to last.

3 Develop

You can offer your communities more opportunities through energy savings, as well as through workforce training and development courses in the energy efficiency field.

4 Save

Our network is deeply rooted in local communities, and partners with big box retailers and trade allies to offer your customers a wide range of incentives for installing energy-efficient measures in their homes, equaling big savings for all.
